ROBERT JOSEPH VALERI

On October 27, 1971, Chief Deputy United States Marshal Thomas Reavy, Boston Massachusetts, related that subject is currently in custody of the United States Marshal's Office at Chicago, Illinois, awaiting sentencing on a Federal bank robbery charge after having pleaded guilty in United States District Court, Chicago, Illinois. U

On December 27, 1971, officials at Suffolk County Jail, Boston, Massachusetts, advised that subject had been returned to that jail on December 16, 1971 and had been removed the same date to Worcester County Jail, Worcester, Massachusetts. U

On December 28, 1971, officials at the Worcester County Jail, Worcester, Massachusetts, advised that subject was confined at that jail. U

PROSECUTIVE ACTION

The November 16, 1971, morning edition of "The Boston Globe", Boston, Massachusetts, a local daily newspaper published at Boston, contains an article captioned "Valeri gets 10-yr. term for Evanston, Ill., robbery", which article is datelined at Chicago, Illinois and contains information that subject was sentenced on November 15, 1971 to 10 years in prison for the $3,086 robbery of the Prudential Savings and Loan Association in Evanston. The presiding judge was Judge Abraham L. Marovitz in United States District Court. The article continues that subject was sentenced under a law which permits subject's release by a parole board whenever during the 10 years the board finds him eligible under regular board standards. Article also indicates that subject pleaded guilty to the charge, after having testified against one other individual involved in the same robbery. U

On June 4, 1971 Judge ABRAHAM LINCOLN MAROVITZ, U.S.
District Court, Chicago, set trial for STANLEY RAY BOND and ROBERT JOSEPH VALERI for June 11, 1971, for the armed robbery of the Prudential Savings and Loan Association, Evanston, Illinois,
August 18, 1970, Title 18, United States Code, Section 2113(a) and (d), docket number 71 CR 2. U

On June 11, 1971 VALERI appeared before Judge MAROVITZ and Boston attorney JAMES J. MC LAUGHLIN was appointed defense counsel. VALERI entered a plea of guilty and was convicted by the Court upon his plea. U

On June 11, 1971, STANLEY RAY BOND, represented by Boston attorney ROBERT MARDIROSIAN, went on trial before a jury in Judge
MAROVITZ's Court. On June 14, 1971 a mis-trial was declared [REDACTED] U

CG 91-7791; 91-7740

Prior to selection of jury, BOND told Judge MAROVITZ that he did not want to be present in the court room because he did not recognize the court and was merely a prisoner of war, having declared war on the United States. He said he would violently disrupt court if required to be in the court room during trial. On motion of his counsel, Judge MAROVITZ permitted BOND to remain in the U.S. Marshal Lockup during trial. U

Retrial of BOND before a jury in Judge MAROVITZ's court commenced on October 18, 1971 and on October 19, 1971 the jury returned a verdict of guilty. BOND again was absent from court room. U

On October 29, 1971 BOND was sentenced by Judge MAROVITZ to the custody of the Attorney General of the United States for 25 years. Attorney NARDIROSIAN was present. U

Sentencing of VALERI was continued until November 12, 1971 because his attorney was engaged in a trial in Boston, Massachusetts. U
